

Our Policy

All portrait sessions are by appointment only. A consultation to discuss clothing, style, location, and final portrait selection is required.

All images are the exclusive property of Woodside's Photography Studio. While you are always welcome to view your images in the studio, a security deposit is required to take any proof CD or proof book from the studio. The security deposit will be returned when the proof CD or proof book is returned. The proof CD or proof book is to be returned to the studio within 14 days. If you wish, the security deposit may be applied toward your purchase.

Due to the custom nature of our product, we require 100% of the total balance to be paid at the time your order is placed. Please allow 3-4 weeks for your portrait order to be completed.

Our Promise

Woodside's photographers have over 50 years of combined photographic experience. That experience can be seen in every portrait we create and what makes Woodside's Photography the studio of choice for fine quality portraiture. Our promise to you is uncompromising professionalism.

You can be confident that Woodside's Photography will provide you and your family with a timeless portrait to be admired by all.
